

30th Texas Telugu Sahitya Sadassu in Temple, Texas on March 30th (Saturday)

(Free Admission, Free Lunch & Great Telugu Literary Program)

Time: 11 AM to 5:30 PM

Venue: Saraswathi Nilayam, Hindu Temple
4309 Midway, Temple, TX 76502

PROGRAM

11:00 AM - 12:00 PM:	Lunch
12:00 PM - 3.00 PM	Invited and other Special Presentations
3.00 PM - 3.20 PM:	Snack and Tea Break
3.20 PM - 5.30 PM:	Literary Presentations

-Sweeya Rachanalu and Special topics
-Literary Analysis and Quiz
-Telugu Kathalu, Kavitha, Haasyam, language & literature

You are aware that the Texas Telugu Sahitya Sadassulu are conducted once in every six months in Austin, Houston, Dallas, San Antonio and Temple for the last 15 years. This is our 30th Sadassu and we invite all the people interested in Telugu literature and language to attend, participate and make it a grand success. Dr Suma Pokala, Dr Girija Chintapalli and their team is already working on the details of the program.

The entire program is FREE, so please come, participate and enjoy the greatness of Telugu Language & Literature. You don't have to be a Telugu Scholar to enjoy the program. Just about anyone with an appreciation for the Telugu language will find this Sadassu interesting.

Coordinators from Texas cities for the program

Austin:	Satyam Mandapati (satyam_mandapati@yahoo.com)
Houston:	Chitten Raju Vanguri (rvanguri@wt.net)
San Antonio:	Madhava Rao Govindaraju (govindarajus@yahoo.com)
Dallas:	Chandrasekhar Kanneganti (c_kanneganti@yahoo.com) and Reddy Urimindi (reddyu@verizon.net)
Temple, Texas:	Suma Pokala (pokalasuma@hotmail.com)

If you are interested in presenting any literary item at the Sadassu, Please contact Suma Pokala / Satyam Mandapati or any of the other coordinators listed above.